APRIL 2018

April 1, 2018 - 10:30 a.m. Celebrating the (Vernal) Spring Equinox
Susan Czarnocki and Sari Kelen

The Spring Equinox arrived on March 21st. The days are lengthening, nature comes to life again, and there is hopefulness. We are reawakening ourselves after a long winter. Bring on the spring jackets and billy boots, the crocuses and snowdrops, the robins and the scent of sun-warmed earth!

As this will be a multi-generational service, we encourage the participation of everyone attending. Share with us your thoughts and reactions to the experience of the annual cycle of death and rebirth in nature.

The Community of Special Needs Families
A representative of WIAIH

The West Island Association for the Intellectually Handicapped (WIAIH) was created 60 years ago by a group of parents whose children had special needs. They needed mutual support, and wanted to find how to best help their children have full and happy lives. At that time, there were few, if any, resources or support for those families.

Over the ensuing years, WIAIH has grown in size and scope, and is one of the most respected community organizations in the West Island, and has become a caring and strong community 'hub' for these parents and their children.

** NOTE - THIS SERVICE IS FOLLOWED BY A BRIEF STEWARDSHIP
PRESENTATION BY THE TREASURER

*****

April 22, 2018 - 10:30 a.m.

Judaism Unbound
Rabbi Sherril Gilbert

There is not "one" Judaism today – in fact, there are many. Jews who identify as Reform, Conservative, Orthodox or Ultra-Orthodox have made clear decisions about what their Judaism looks like, acts like, and feels like. These decisions create boundaries around the denominations that keeps people in or out.

In this presentation, Rabbi Sherril discusses her current thoughts on Jewish renewal, an evolving spiritual movement that is radically inclusive, superbly accessible, and deeply reverent. "Judaism Unbound" provides insights and suggestions for other progressive faith groups who wish to build communities incorporating these same values.

Rooker

April 29 - 10:30 a.m.

Tales from a Book of Life, Part 1: Adventures
Michael Rooker

Michael will explore our collective spirituality through a few intriguing, international stories and reflections from his family's "book of life" that they've experienced over the years. He will start to go "bravely" on as a "free seeker" into areas that science has yet to fathom / to measure.

"In Part 1, I've selected a few key events and spun them into tales that I hope will resonate with you. They're factual so I've called them tales rather than fables. I'll look at them then as we go back in time together, typically as a young man but then I'll review their spiritual or hidden significance now with (hopefully) a wiser head.

In Part 2 (in the Fall) I will remind us that to better explore life's puzzles, seekers need to go beyond our traditional five senses and set out instead along new pathways of our individual imaginations.

Musician - Kerry-Anne Kutz

and Nancy Schmidt

Sunday April 29 beginning at 12:30 p.m.

TO MEET, AND GREET, BILAL AND FARAH KERNAZI AND THEIR 4 CHILDREN

Our LUUC congregation, along with the members and friends of Summerlea United, Beaurepaire United, and Union Church worked for over 2 years with our co-sponsor, Salman Karnazi, to bring his brother and family to Canada as sponsored Syrian refugees. They arrived in Montreal on February 12th, and are settling in to their new community of Ville St-Laurent.

This is the chance for us all to celebrate their arrival in Canada together with the other members of their family! We hope you will join us too.

Please bring something for the shared food table –
Some Syrian delicacies will also be offered.

PLEASE RSVP to Sheila Laursen (514 697-4195 or sheila.laursen@bell.net) by April 25th so we can be sure to have enough seating for everyone.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I know it's hard to believe, but the crocuses, daffodils and tulips will be poking their noses out of the ground soon! I promise!

Our Service Auction was another success. While the turnout wasn't what we had hoped it would be, the energy and enthusiasm was certainly present. I won't reveal the result here; you'll have to read on for the full report! However, I do want to express my gratitude to those who generously offered their services and to those who purchased them. As well, I would like to thank Sheila and Christopher, who both spear-headed this fundraising project. All in all, it was a group effort and it warms my heart to witness all that camaraderie and spirit of cooperation.

As usual, April promises to be another busy month. We will be having our annual stewardship campaign, and while we won't make as many presentations as we did last year, we do ask that you begin to think about LUUC and consider its importance in your life. I know that for myself, our little congregation has expanded to become my extended family. But for now, I'll let our Treasurer do the rest of the talking about stewardship.

Kerry-Anne is proposing to hold a concert on a Sunday afternoon in April with Sandra Hunt and Maider Martineau after one of our services. The exact date is still to be determined. The trio performed this concert at the UCM and are offering to do a repeat performance at LUUC. It promises to be a great activity and I hope to see you all there. Stay tuned for more info!

Other points of business this month include the electoral meeting near the end of April. Oh! and Men's Brigade... better make sure your aprons are cleaned and starched for Mother's Day (Yes, it's in May, but it never hurts to get a jump on things ;-)

Meanwhile, enjoy the warming weather, the longer days and keep an eye out for emerging spring flowers. If you need a little encouragement, I did see a small flock of geese flying northwards over NDG last week. Spring is coming!

~ Irene

Treasurer Report

CURRENT FUNDRAISING AND THE 2018-2019 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN, TAKE 2

Last month, we raised over $ 1640 despite a relatively modest attendance at the March 18 Service Auction. Over a hundred items representing a wide variety of products and services were on offer under 28 different rubrics. There are now less than half a dozen items still available for purchase, see the listing elsewhere in this Newsletter or for more up-to-date information, check out the SERVICE AUCTION UPDATE in the Events listing on the Home page of luuc.org.

The Service Auction is not only a fun way of raising additional funds for Lakeshore but also it permits us to get to know the talents and tastes of our fellow members, judging from the products they make or the services they offer. In its own way, this kind of sharing builds our beloved community as we gain in appreciation of what we can offer one another. And we give free reign to the spirit of generosity, a key element of spiritual approach to life, as the speaker that day, Bhaskar Goswami, pointed out in his presentation.

Looking forward to this coming month, which is the last month of Lakeshore's 2017-2018 Financial Year, the Treasurer will make a succinct presentation of the Financial Outlook of the Congregation on April 15 in the Sanctuary at the end of the service with guest speaker Franca Kesic. I will take questions and distribute our 'pledge' forms to members and friends to indicate in what measure they can contribute their talents, time and treasure to support our Lakeshore community's activities and programs during the 2018-2019 Financial Year. Then, we can go to our coffee and biscuits!

*~ Christopher Thomson, Treasurer,
Finances & Fundraising Chair*

SE NEWS

EASTER EGG HUNT FOR THE LITTLE ONES – SUNDAY APRIL 1st

We will be continuing with the new curriculum that was introduced within all the SE groups last month. All the children seemed to enjoy the program and were happily engaged and involved in the activities and readings.

In general, for April, the Younger students will continue to bring home arts and crafts related to books and circle time activities involving friendship, family and self-concept. The Middle Group students will continue with the book Riddle and Mystery modules. They have been discussing the seven Unitarian Universalist principles and two Big Questions: where do we come from and what are we? The Youth Group are in the second module of the book Becoming. They have been analyzing different themes such as self-knowledge, passion and purpose in their adulthood life.

I want to thank Irene, Selina and Susan who oversaw SE lessons with the Middle and Youth Group in March. Also, I wanted to welcome two girls who are going to be joining the younger group each two weeks: Sarah and Maya. I am sure some of you have already met them.

REMINDER: Bella and Olivia Gavanski will be attending CanUdle in Hamilton this year and hope to see other friends from LUUC and UCM at this fun-filled, spiritual and life-affirming event. Any youth over 14-years-old wishing to attend, information, registration forms and subsidy info for the event can be found here: <http://cuc.ca/youth/youth-events/canuudle/>

CanUdle 2018 takes place over the May long weekend, from Friday, May 18 at 5:00 pm – Monday, May 21, 2018 at 12:30 pm, at the First Unitarian Church of Hamilton. The church address is 170 Dundurn St S, Hamilton, ON.
