Welcome Back Service

September 8, 2024 at 10:30 a.m.

Sharing and Caring is a new addition to our three existing series of presentations for our Sundays services. Unlike the other three, which are centered around the listening of interesting and inspiring presentations, this series will focus more on discussions and sharing of ideas by the participants. Here is what we will be focusing on for this Sunday's inaugural discussion:

It's the start of a new year at LUUC – let's gather our ideas about how to spark commitment and get people involved. We'll take some time to get to know each other better and talk about our ideas and aspirations. But the central notion of our Unitarian covenant is doing, not just talking.

We also invite your presence to help us celebrate the arrival of Afghan siblings who fled from the Taliban. They were dependent on us, and we have gone through several years of keeping them alive... and now they are here in Montreal! Be there on Sunday to listen to and to share in this amazing story.

Join us in person in our sanctuary, or online, at 10:30 am on Sunday, September 8th. / Rejoignez-nous en personne ou en ligne à 10h30 le dimanche 8 septembre.
